

Singin' in the Rain: BFI Film Classics

Singin' in the Rain is a 1952 American musical comedy film directed and choreographed by Gene Kelly and Stanley Donen, and starring Kelly, Donald O'Connor, and Debbie Reynolds. The film is set in Hollywood in the late 1920s, as the film industry is transitioning from silent films to talkies. Singin' in the Rain is widely considered to be one of the greatest musicals ever made, and it is frequently ranked among the best films of all time.

Singin' in the Rain (BFI Film Classics) by Peter Wollen

★★★★☆ 4.6 out of 5

Language : English
File size : 9938 KB
Text-to-Speech : Enabled
Screen Reader : Supported
Enhanced typesetting : Enabled
Print length : 95 pages

The film's plot follows Don Lockwood (Kelly), a silent film star who falls in love with Kathy Selden (Reynolds), an aspiring actress. However, their relationship is threatened by the arrival of Lina Lamont (O'Connor), a popular but untalented actress who is determined to marry Don. With the help of his best friend Cosmo Brown (O'Connor), Don must find a way to keep Kathy and save his career.

Singin' in the Rain is a classic for a reason. It is a funny, heartwarming, and visually stunning film that features some of the most iconic musical numbers ever created. The film's songs, including "Singin' in the Rain,"

"Good Morning," and "Make 'Em Laugh," are instantly recognizable and have been covered by countless artists over the years.

The film's cast is also top-notch. Kelly is charming and charismatic as Don Lockwood, and he gives one of the best performances of his career. Reynolds is equally charming as Kathy Selden, and she brings a sweetness and innocence to the role. O'Connor is hilarious as Cosmo Brown, and he provides much of the film's comic relief.

Singin' in the Rain is a timeless classic that deserves its place among the greatest films ever made. It is a film that can be enjoyed by audiences of all ages, and it is sure to leave you smiling long after the credits have rolled.

BFI Film Classics

Singin' in the Rain is part of the BFI Film Classics collection, which is a series of DVDs and Blu-rays that celebrates the greatest films of all time. Each release in the collection includes a wealth of bonus features, including commentary tracks, documentaries, and interviews. Singin' in the Rain is a must-have for any fan of classic cinema.

Bonus Features

- Commentary track by Gene Kelly and Stanley Donen
- Documentary on the making of the film
- Interviews with the cast and crew
- Deleted scenes
- Outtakes
- Sing-along version of the film

Technical Specs

- Aspect ratio: 1.37:1
- Runtime: 103 minutes
- Audio: Mono
- Language: English
- Subtitles: English, French, Spanish

Free Download Your Copy Today!

Singin' in the Rain: BFI Film Classics is available now on DVD and Blu-ray. Free Download your copy today and experience one of the greatest musicals ever made.

Singin' in the Rain (BFI Film Classics) by Peter Wollen

★★★★☆ 4.6 out of 5

Language : English

File size : 9938 KB

Text-to-Speech : Enabled

Screen Reader : Supported

Enhanced typesetting : Enabled

Print length : 95 pages

FREE

DOWNLOAD E-BOOK

"Flesh Wounds" by Richard Glover: A Provocative Exploration of Trauma, Identity, and the Human Body

In his thought-provoking and deeply moving book "Flesh Wounds," Richard Glover embarks on an unflinching exploration of the profound impact trauma can have...

Trial Techniques and Trials: Essential Knowledge for Legal Professionals

Navigating the complexities of trial law requires a deep understanding of courtroom procedures, effective trial strategies, and the ability to...